

The FCC should not limit Indiana's restrictions on telephone solicitation. A law has been implemented that truly has had an immediate and positive effect on families (no kidding; phone solicitation during evening hours is disruptive).